Tips and Tricks

Stuff that makes your life easier/better/faster

- Open floor

A photograph of a garden rake lying in a thick carpet of fallen autumn leaves. The leaves are a mix of yellow, orange, and brown, covering the ground and partially obscuring the rake's metal tines. The rake itself is made of dark wood and has a silver metal head. The background is blurred, showing more of the leaf-strewn area.
